Start-ups and existing small business owners can tap into valuable tools and resources at the Jacksonville Regional Chamber of Commerce's Small Business Center (SBC). The SBC works to provide comprehensive support, training and assistance to Jacksonville's small business community. Entrepreneurs and business owners have access to a personal business advisor, research tools and resources, networking groups and business-related workshops and seminars, all under one roof.

- Utilize business resources
- Access counseling and mentoring
- Attend business workshops
- Evaluate financing options
- Contract with the government
- Identify economic opportunities

Small Business Development Center of UNF

Help for small businesses in North Florida, across the State and around the Nation.

Small Business Development Centers have assisted hundreds and thousands of potential and existing business owners by providing the management advice, training and information they need to start, grow, and profit. With funding from the U.S. Small Business Administration and partners ranging from institutions of higher learning to state agencies to municipalities, to private organizations. SBDC's are able to offer this management assistance to business owners at little or no cost.
