Veterans with disabilities are disproportionately more vulnerable to the impact of COVID-19. For our nation's 4.7 million disabled veterans, the coronavirus creates a set of unique challenges—not only do service-connected illnesses place these individuals in higher-risk categories, but many now also face a dire financial situation due to lost income. here are thousands of disabled veterans in need, and DAV is here to help. In response to this unprecedented event, we are establishing a COVID-19 Relief Fund to provide help to service-connected disabled veterans who have lost employment. <https://thedav.wufoo.com/forms/q1078og50y99123/>

Northeast FL	Jewish Family & Community Services		211		Effective immediately, Jewish Family &amp; Community Services has received financial assistance dollars for people experiencing financial hardship directly related to the COVID 19 pandemic. Funding for our community is available through the First Coast Relief Fund. This fund is a collaborative effort of the following agencies who have been raising money to provide assistance to our Northeast Florida community: The Jewish Federation &amp; Foundation of Northeast Florida  The Community Foundation for Northeast Florida  The United Way of Northeast Florida  The Jessie Ball DuPont Fund  The United Way of St. Johns County Initially, the focus will be on ensuring that people have the ability to get needed prescriptions and have access to food. As we move through the process, we will adjust the focus to rent/mortgage and utility payments. It is our understanding that during this time JEA will not be turning off power to homes and all evictions have been temporarily halted. Please call 2-1-1 if you need help. Once you are assigned to a fund-managing agency (Jewish Family &amp; Community Services, BEAM, Catholic Charities and Elder Source), there might be a 3-5 business day delay to hear back from the organization to which your case is assigned. We ask that those who need assistance refrain from calling multiple times because the agency has not contacted you. It is our goal to be able to address all cases in as short of a timeframe as possible.
	Jewish Family & Community Services - Max Block Food Pantry and Senior Food Delivery				The Max Block Food Pantry and senior food delivery programs will remain open for business as usual until further notice. Bagged food will be available for pick-up between 1-3:00 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday at our Dupont location (6261 Dupont Station Court East). When you come to the food pantry, please park in a numbered space in front of the pantry, stay in your vehicle, and turn on your hazard lights. We will come to your vehicle to assist you.
	Jewish Family & Community Services - Counseling Services		904-394-5706		Our counseling department has moved to a teletherapy model and we encourage anyone needing therapeutic assistance to call 904-394-5706 to schedule an appointment.
